

Who are we?

Ditswammung Savings & Credit Co-operative Society (Saccos) is a cooperative financial institution that is owned and managed by its members, it is closely regulated by the Ministry of Investment, Trade and Industry just like any other financial institution. The SACCOS was created with an objective to provide a secure and convenient place where members can save their money and avail for loans at reasonable rates.

Ditswammung Savings and Credit Cooperative Society was founded and registered in the year 1998 under the Cooperative Societies Act (Cap 42:04) as a Savings and Credit Co-operative Society. Its main areas of service provision include; the mobilization of savings, the provision of credit and welfare facilities to its members. We are a not-for-profit organization offering a wide array of financial services; the saccos is owned by its membership.

The Mind-Set

- The environment in which we were raised makes us feel that we are inadequate unless we get assistance from someone. Only we can we change this mindset and build a society that has good financial health.

How can we accumulate savings?

- The only reliable and sustainable way of raising lump sums of cash is to find a way of fostering a saving and investment attitude. Save as little as you can monthly and see your money grow.

Why Ditswammung SACCO?

- If you're looking for an easy way to save money on monthly bank charges and earn competitive interest on savings, Ditswammung might be the answer.
- Becoming a member of Ditswammung allows you to own and operate your own bank. Membership entitles you to equal shareholding translating into ability to vote for the board of Directors, have a say in decision making and directly reap the benefits of the growth and performance of the SACCO!!
